Punkersdorf is situated on the edge of the Weser Uplands (Westerwälder Waldgebiet) between Hildesheim and Hildesheim-Büchen. The town has a population of around 14,000 and is a part of the borough of Hildesheim. History The name of the town comes from Punkt ("P"), which means "P" in the North Frisian language, and "dorf", which means "settlement". Punkt is believed to have been founded in the 10th or early 11th century. In the 13th century, Punkt was the location of the diocese of Wittenberg. In the 14th and 15th century, the town was an important
