Category:Pipeline transportDETROIT — Detroit Tigers slugger Miguel Cabrera suffered an abrasion on the heel of his left foot during Sunday's game at Minnesota, the club announced on Monday. Cabrera will be re-evaluated in a few days after the injury was assessed by the club's medical staff. "I'm not worried about it," Cabrera said when asked about the injury. "It's a little scratch. It doesn't really bother me." Cabrera was hit on the left foot by Minnesota Twins' catcher Mike Redmond in the eighth inning on Sunday. The impact caused Cabrera to stumble for a few moments before regaining his balance and continuing to play. When the Tigers returned to Detroit on Monday 2d92ce491b
